

Home

The colony of North Carolina video

.The founders of North Carolina were the colonists in Virginia They found it in 1653. The first person there was Ralph Lane. Some of the products that they traded was tobacco, cotton and corn.

Good website click here

North Carolina is in the dark green and it is in the south of the thirteen colonies.

News Article

Article headline

They moved to North Carolina because of religion. One religion that was represented in North Carolina was the Anglican religion.

Primary map of the colonies

News Article

Article headline

Date: 00/00/00

All of the wealthy people were educated well. Charles Griffin was the first person to open a school in North Carolina. The first school was opened in 1705.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

To draw readers into the page, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.